

Scholarship - Thank-you Notes

D. M., Stanford University: "Thank you very much for the extraordinary scholarship award. Because of your kindness, I will be able to apply myself wholeheartedly to my studies this sophomore year, without serious concern for my financial situation."

M. O., Benedictine College: "I am honored by your support and generosity. With the help of your previous financial support, I completed my sophomore year and took additional prerequisites for the Nursing Program."

C. K., Southern Methodist University: "I am elated to have received the scholarship award. I have benefited tremendously from your contributions as the money has allowed me to focus on my studies, majoring in Business and Macroeconomics."

A. R., UC Santa Barbara: "I would like to sincerely thank the Swiss Benevolent Society in support of my studies. Your generosity has given me the freedom and resources to more deeply explore the various emerging trends of neuroscience, my chosen major."

L.H., Arizona State University: "I hope that this small card can reflect the immense gratitude I have for the Swiss Benevolent Society. The Iselin scholarship has eased our financial burden tremendously and my mother and I had tears when we saw the generous amount."

S.G., Saint Mary's College: "Thank you so much for rewarding me with a scholarship. With your help, my family will not have to carry as much of a financial burden. I am double majoring in History and Education, and am enrolled in a program called "Teachers for Tomorrow."

N.P., Dartmouth College: "This scholarship means that I will not have to work an on-campus job this year to help pay for my tuition, allowing me more time to focus on my classes and soccer. I am extremely grateful for this opportunity, as attempting to balance Division 1 college athletics with an Ivy League course load is already going to be leaving me with very little time as it is."

J.T., Stanford: "I would like to express my most sincere gratitude to the Swiss Benevolent Society for granting me such a generous scholarship. The cost of books and other school supplies can be a heavy burden - one that I no longer need to worry about thanks to your kindness."

E.S., U. of Southern California: " I would like to extend my heartfelt thank you to the Swiss Benevolent Society and in particular, the Amstutz and Scherer families, for this very generous financial contributions which support my educational endeavors."

D. M., Stanford: "I would like to thank you, with all my heart for your generous scholarship award. This is the third year your benevolent organization has blessed me with the easing of would-be financial worries, and I find myself profoundly humbled by your giving spirit."

T. O., Benedictine College: "Thank you for choosing me as one of the recipients of the Swiss Benevolent Society General Scholarship. I am truly honored and thankful for your support. I am now completing my senior year as a nursing student."

A. J., Wesleyan University: "Thank you very much for selecting me for the Swiss Benevolent Society General Scholarship. The award will greatly benefit me in the upcoming school year as I continue to work towards attending Medical School."

T. O., U. of Nevada: "Thank you very much for the scholarships you have awarded me. They will help greatly in my efforts to further my education."

J.T., Stanford: "Thank you so much for awarding me such a generous scholarship. Without it, I would have extreme difficulties financing my education. Your organization makes my education not just feasible but possible."

J.S., Berklee College: "Music has always been such a big part of my life and my soul; music has always been the easiest way to express myself. With the aid of this scholarship, I will be able to continue attending Berklee and expand my knowledge and professionalism, as well as inspire others."

D. K., Stanford: "I would like to thank you with all my heart for your generous scholarship award. For now the fourth time in four years, your benevolent organization has blessed me with the easement of would-be financial worries and I find myself profoundly humbles by your giving spirit."
